

QUIZ #25
April 23, 2009

1. Research suggests that rap music may improve public health, by informing young people about safe sex.
  - A True – In an Emory University study, the knowledge kids gain about themselves and the diseases helps them make informed decisions about sexual behavior and makes them less likely to engage in risky sexual practices.
  - B False

2. Rap and hip-hop will get the most power from:
  - A mobilizing Whites.
  - B mobilizing Blacks.
  - C mobilizing Latinos.

3. Before hip hop, positive representations of African-Americans were:
  - A criminals on the evening news.
  - B athletes.
  - C The Fresh Prince of Bel Air.

4. Women saw being activists as competing with their role as mothers.
  - A True
  - B False – They engaged in activist work due to the link between toxic waste and their children's ill health, so the public activist work they did was an extension of their private responsibilities as mothers.

5. Conflict was high in the relationships of activists because activism:
  - A disrupted power arrangements at home.
  - B interfered with traditional gender roles.
  - C both of the above